

Payment Processing solutions for veterinary clinics

When an unexpected illness affects our pets, the related expenses also affect their owners. Offer your customers convenient payment options like credit and debit card payments and even recurring payment plans. Let your and your clients' only concern be providing the best care for their pets and not how they will cover the costs.

In-person payments with the newest stand-alone payment terminals.

Payment integration with your POS system, website, or mobile application.

Payment plan solutions and recurring payments with our virtual terminal.
